From the Pastor's Desk

Sometimes the best thing a pastor can do after each month is look back and reflect upon some of the joyful ministry that took place. This is a good practice because it brings a smile to my face in what we have done together and it also makes me more fully realize how grateful that I am your pastor.

So with that here are a few of the highlights from February. Jackie and I housed and hosted John Roth from Food for the Poor and he shared with us their ministry in a global perspective during education time and worship time and we supported Food for the Poor as our mission of the month.

I attended a clergy continuing education with thirty pastors from the Southern Ohio Synod in St. Paris. This was a time to reconnect with fellow clergy and gather insight and wisdom from those ordained in the ELCA. Jackie, Susan Pytel and Melinda Schall took eight of our youth on a spiritual retreat to Capital University in Bexley, Ohio.

We had about thirty people come to our game & pizza night for fun and fellowship one Saturday evening. We listened to the beautiful music of our Bell Choir one Sunday morning under the leadership of Lori Sebastian. And then we ended the month with our church council going on a spiritual retreat on the last Saturday in February getting hungry for the community Brat supper meal later that day.

A lot of good ministry happening at Zion for sure! In all these events we bonded and strengthened our relationships with each other in serving Jesus.

WORSHIP & MUSIC / February 15

The Worship and Music Committee met Wednesday, February 15th. In attendance: Terri Darrah, Carla Frame, Pastor Glawe, Deb Keppel, Lori Sebastian, and Ruth White.

We discussed upcoming services. Ash Weds. will be March 1st – with services at 11AM and 7PM. There will be a special devotional service March 15th at 6PM held in the narthex. Hors oeuvres and coffee will be served with a meditation and singing following (around 6:15PM). We discussed communion style and altar paraments for the various Holy Week services: Palm Sunday (200 palms are ordered), Maundy Thursday (stripping the altar), Good Friday (7 candles), and Easter Sunday.

We also discussed offering grape juice (as an option) along with the wine due to multiple family and personal requests. The altar committee will work on providing this as an option by March. Carla Frame reported that the altar guild is looking at options for getting vases and chalices refurbished. They also are exploring replacing some of the altar linens. The altar guild also will make certain the appropriate banners are hung seasonally. Appropriate liturgical changes will be made for Lent including adding the Lord, have mercy and Glory to God into the service. The Return to the Lord canticle and Create in Me verse will return.

Terri Darrah has been busy planning Lent and Easter music. Several new anthems were ordered and we will be incorporating those into the choir repertoire! The choir will be singing Ash Weds. (7PM service) and Maundy Thursday (7PM), in addition to the regular Sunday services.

Pastor Glawe reported we would have a youth led service on Sunday, May 7th. This will be held in the round house. It will be confirmands leading the service with all youth participating. This is a project supported by the council, the Christian Education department, and Worship and Music committee. Pastor Glawe also reported Confirmation will be Sunday, May 14th (also Mothers' Day).

piece on Sunday! Special thanks go to the Women of Zion for providing snacks for our rehearsals! Organ fund remains stable. Lori will call Norm Willoughby again in February and explore our options there. Our next meeting date is Wednesday, April 19th at 1:15 PM.

Bell Choir News

Thanks to the following individuals for playing in the bell choir on Sunday, Feb. 19: Karen, Abigail, Adam, and Allison Cartwright, Jackie Glawe, Deborah, Tyler and Kayly Fetters, Terry and Sandra Hoffman, Gail Merlo, and Rachel, Lisa, and Julie Sebastian. We had 8 kids and 6 adults using 4 octaves of bells – which means we have taken up most of the space in the front of the church! It also makes the director's job much easier with so many of our kids and parents reading music. All of the kids listed play at least one other instrument (piano, band instrument, or voice!)

A couple of recent honors for our youth musicians: As a freshman, Tyler Fetters was selected for District Honors Choir through Miami East School District and performed in Troy on Jan. 29. In addition, he was chosen for All State Choir, which performed in Cleveland on February 5. Rachel Sebastian was selected for District Honors Band through Bethel School District and performed in Troy. She was also selected for the Tri State Band which performed at Wright State University on Feb. 18. Congratulations to all our youth musicians.

Some of the “Sisters of the Skillet” filled our church with savory smells on Tuesday, Feb. 7 as they produced 8 gallons of turkey noodle soup for the Art for the Heart show on the following Saturday in our Fellowship Hall. We also enjoyed bowls of soup together, and took some to shut-ins.

The art show offered another fun time for our “Sisters” as we served lunch at the event. The profit will support the many outreaches of our church. Come join our “Sisters” or our great auxiliary of men in the dishwashing “man cave”!
